

Apollo Hospitals Education and Research Foundation (AHERF)

ANNEXURE C

Training will include the following:

1. Hands on training through:
  - Hands on training during procedures or surgeries (under supervision as assistant as well as independent)
  - Case presentation during clinical meetings
  - Observations during ward rounds
  - Simulator training
  - Training through videos

2. Clinical meetings
  - Clinical Meetings/ CMEs/ Departmental Meetings/ Symposiums
  - Bed side case presentation
  - Journal club

3. In patient
  - Case presentations of new admissions, complicated cases and major complications reported on daily basis
  - Quarterly Clinical Audit and mortality review of all cases during the quarter through powerpoint presentation
  - Ward rounds

Training will be conducted as per teaching/ training schedule prepared by the supervisor/guide and subsequently approved by AHERF.

4. Publication: One article or paper to be published in a reputed journal during the course of the Clinical Fellowship.

5. Log book shall be provided to each candidate by the institution and shall be maintained by each candidate on daily basis. Logbook will be countersigned by the supervisor/guide on regular basis.