

Living donor requirements of Paperwork for committee approval

(for foreign National)

1. Passport size photographs : Patient, Donor & Guardian – (6 each).
2. Valid Passport and Visa.
3. Marriage proof (Marriage photo / Marriage certificate / Marriage Invitation) of patient and donor or donor and guardian.
4. A letter from the high commissioner / embassy of the respective country in India, certifying
 - ❖ Relationship certificate between the donor and recipient mentioning the need for liver transplantation for the patient
 - ❖ No Objection Certificate Clarifying that the high commission / embassy have no objection to the patient and donor receiving the transplant at Apollo Hospitals, Chennai.
5. Original affidavit from the patient, donor and donor's spouse (or parent / guardian) dually affixing his or her photograph and signed by a competent authority in their native country.

Note: The patient, donor and donor's spouse (or parent / guardian) should be present for signing the documents in person when they appear before the committee (in person).

PS: If the donor is married, the donor's spouse has to be present for the committee approval process. For donors who are unmarried, separated or widowed, one parent or legal guardian can substitute for the spouse. Divorced / widowed donors will have to produce proof of the divorce or death certificate of spouse).