

REGIONAL SEMINAR ON
SHARING OF HEALTHCARE INNOVATIONS & BEST PRACTICES

Vaividhya 2015

23 March 2015, Monday
Apollo Hospitals International Limited, Ahmedabad

About Seminar.....

We are immensely pleased to invite your esteemed organization to this very special seminar, exclusively organized for the healthcare fraternity with an intent of promoting innovations and sharing best practices in the area of healthcare management. Sharing of ideas, knowledge & best practices is an excellent way to drive the operational efficiency and to improve the overall performance by replicating the innovative ideas which have already contributed to significant difference to some of the organizations.

We are trying to bring in innovators & achievers from various hospitals of this region to help us have an insight on their perspective to success through knowledge sharing. Hope this seminar will help us to develop an active interdisciplinary approach as we believe that the enormous potential of each of us can only be fully realized by working together.

This seminar will provide a platform to the healthcare professionals to showcase their best practices & to present the case studies to other organizations and help in faster dissemination of innovative ideas that increase productivity, efficiency and overall performance.

Domains To Be Deliberated.....

Innovations / best practices / case studies / research papers are invited in any of the following four domains, in a presentation format enclosed with this email.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Clinical Care & Quality Management | 2. Operations & IT |
| 3. Marketing & Finance | 4. HR, Training & Development |

An organization can send only one presentation in each domain. NO PARTICIPATION FEE FOR THIS SEMINAR...The last date to send the presentation is 08 March 2015. In order to maintain the quality of the seminar, all the presentations shall be subjected to an evaluation process by a Review Committee of the seminar. Communication regarding final selection shall be made to you by 14 March 2015.

On the seminar day, the best innovation / best practice in each domain shall be judged by a panel of experts and winner organizations shall be awarded. Participation certificates shall be given to all presenters.

Many eminent executives from across the region will address key innovations in healthcare management and the seminar day is bound to be a knowledge-rich experience. We look forward to meeting you & exchanging ideas in person at the seminar. In return, we all will learn as much as we can and then contribute back to our hospitals to make a wee bit of difference in the way we care for our patients & manage our domains.

We assure you a memorable visit to Apollo Hospitals International Limited, Ahmedabad.
